DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-9, drawn to a laminate sheet, classified in class 428, subclass 40.1.
 - II. Claims 10-14, drawn to a producing method for a laminate sheet, classified in class 156, subclass 247.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions Group II and Group I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product can be made by a materially different process such as providing preformed adhesive strips in a target form to obviate the cutting step or providing preformed protecting sheet strips to obviate the cutting step.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. During a telephone conversation with David Posz on December 8, 2004 a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claims 1-9. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 10-14 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-4 and 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Blanford (3349765).

Blanford relates to a laminate sheet comprising an adhesive sheet (10) having a predetermined form and a protective member (13) in different positions on a long release sheet (12), wherein the protective member is thicker than said adhesive sheet and is provided so as to not overlap said adhesive sheet (figure-2), when the release sheet (12) is removed. The sheet can be in a roll form as shown in figure-3. The protective member is provided on both side portions (figure-2). If the gap (16) between the protective member and the adhesive is considered a part of the adhesive sheet, then the protective member covers the adhesive sheet by partial overlap at edge (15) and can be seen to be less than 50% of the surface area of the adhesive sheet. The adhesive is provided in a continuous form in the center portion of the sheet. Since the base material can be thermoplastic, it is resin material.

Art Unit: 1772

As for claim 8, it has not been given patentable weight because it is directed to an intended future use of the laminate sheet for producing optical disc.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Blanford..

Blanford, as discussed above, fails to teach that the thickness of the protective member is greater than the adhesive sheet by 5 to 100 microns. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to modify Blanford by providing the protective member (13) to have a thickness of 5 to 100microns greater than the adhesive sheet (10) thereby providing for reinforcement and strength to the edge of the sheet.
